Who is special to you?

I am beginning to explore family small world toys

I understand that I can name people in my family

I can explain who the different people are in my family

Can you talk about your school?

I am beginning to play in a small group

I understand that I can name my school, class and friends

I can explain who the different people are in our school

How do we make people welcome?

I am beginning to make connections with people through signs, gestures and expressions

I understand how I can welcome a friend to play with me

I can explain different ways we can make people feel welcome to our school

Where do we belong?

What makes you unique?

I am beginning to say something that makes me unique

I understand what makes me the same as others in my class

I can explain how some people are different to me

How do people become a member of the Christian family?

I am beginning to explore baptism artefacts

I can understand what items are used in a baptism and how they are used

I can explain something that happens during a baptism

How do different faiths show they belong to their community?

I am beginning to explore special objects from different faiths

I understand how special objects from different faiths are used

I can explain how special objects are used in different faiths